After filing this notice, the employer will continue to be liable for the payment of contributions on wages paid for any employment that the employer may have in the future regardless of the number of employees. This notice will relieve the employer of only the duty of filing quarterly contributions and wage reports for periods during which no employment is performed. The employer's liable status as a subject "employer" may be terminated only as of the beginning of a calendar year and only in accordance with the provisions of Section 206.004 of the Act which quoted on the back side of this form SIGNATURE: _____ TITLE: _____ DATE: _____

TEXAS UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION ACT

Sec. 206.004. Termination of Coverage.

- (a) An employing unit may cease to be an employer only on January 1 of a year and only if the commission finds that:
 - (1) the employing unit was not an employer during the preceding year; or
 - (2) the employing unit had not had any individuals in employment during the preceding three calendar years.
- (b) The commission may not make a finding under Subsection (a)(1) unless the employing unit files an application for termination of coverage with the commission on or after January 1 but before April 1 for which termination is requested. The commission may make a finding under Subsection (a)(2) without an application having been filed.

Sec. 206.005. Previous Rights Lost by Cessation of Coverage.

When an employing unit that ceased to be an employer subsequently becomes an employer, the employing unit is considered to be a new employer without regard to the rights that employing unit acquired when previously an employer.
